Field of Study: Taxes / 8:30 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. / Recommended 16 hours of CPE credit

Nov. 1-2 – Virtual

Instructor: Robert W. Jamison, CPA, Ph.D.

Fee:

$495 if paid on or before Sept. 20

$545 if paid after Sept. 20

Attend and you will learn:

- Basic eligibility rules
- Late election relief rules
- IRS policy and judicial rules regarding compensation of shareholder-employees
- Basis planning techniques
- The relationship of the net investment income tax to S corporation shareholders
- Awareness of the built-in gains tax
- Strategies for using subsidiary corporations
- Structuring the purchase or sale of an S corporation

A dedicated tax school for S corporations and LLCs having made the corporate election and taxed as an S corporation.

This directed discussion advanced-level course, delivered online, will cover formation, operation, contributions, and cash distributions. Recent changes in law or rulings will be emphasized. The materials will cover dissolution of an S corporation and impact of shareholders' choices on taxes. One example is the contribution of property to the corporation upon organization and its subsequent sale. The focus will be on closely-held corporations although the instructor may address all types of S corporation questions.

Primary class material will come from the electronic course text, S Corporations: A Road Map for Tax Practitioners. You will be working with facts and the tax consequences for shareholders and the S corporation. The only prerequisite for this course is a working knowledge of taxation, corporate structure, and how flow-through works.

“Overall excellent course [with a] massive amount of information. Great value for the dollar. Course should be required for all who process business returns.”
